

STORY BOOK	GUIDED READING PROMPTS	VOCABULARY FLASHCARDS	DID YOU KNOW? CARDS	FUN FACT CARDS	OOPSI SPELLING CARDS	COLOURING PAGES	ACTIVITY RESOURCE PACK	CRAFT RESOURCE PACK	STORYTELLING POSTER AND CHARACTER STICKERS	SING-A-LONG JINGLE	LANGAUGE FLIPBOOKS
Communication and Language Development Children are given opportunities to experience a rich language environment, to develop their confidence and skills in expressing themselves. They speak and listen in a range of situations.
Provides a rich language environment and encourages talking about the story, speaking and listening.	Prompt questions encourage expression around the story, characters and personal learning.	Flashcards introduce and reinforce topic relevant language.	Card decks provide opportunities for individual and group expression, including potential gamification.				Provides a range of activities to encourage speaking and listening with adults and peers.		Encourages confidence and skills in speaking and listening by retelling the story and extending imaginative storytelling.	Provides opportunities to develop confidence in expression.	Provides opportunities to explore the story in multiple languages, including English, Spanish and Arabic.
Literacy Development Children are given opportunities to begin to link sounds and letters and begin to read and write. They are given access to a range of reading materials (books, poems and other reading materials) to ignite their interests.
Provides opportunities to encourage linking of sounds and letters, reading and ignites interest in exploring imagination and extension of core topic and themes.							Provides mark making and writing resources linked to the story topic.			Provides opportunities to explore rhyme and rhythm.
Personal, Social and Emotional Development Children are given opportunities to develop a positive sense of self, forming positive relationships with others, develop social skills and learn how to manage their feelings. They understand appropriate behaviour in groups and have confidence in their own abilities.
Develops confidence by wagging and woofing theme to recognise and acknowledge learning.									Encourage engagement and interaction with others through imaginative role play and story telling.
Mathematics Children are given opportunities to develop and strengthen their skills in counting, understanding and using numbers. They calculate simple addition and subtraction problems and describe shapes, space and measure.
Stories encourage counting, understanding							Range of activities support development	Range of activities support understanding and using numbers.							of counting, number recognition, sequencing, and development of matching and sorting skills.	and development of shape, space and measure.

Physical Development
Children are given opportunities to be active and interactive, to develop their co-ordination, control and movement. They begin to understand the importance of physical activity and to make healthy food choices.
						Provides opportunities for pencil control, writing and drawing activities	Provides opportunities for fine motor skill development through activities involving cutting, folding and sticking		Development of physical coordination through wagging and woofing movement in response to learning.
Understanding the World
Children are given opportunities to make sense of their physical world and their community by exploring, observing and finding out about people, places, technology and the environment.
Stories and activities support a range of topics linked to the physical world and communities.
Expressive Arts and Design
Children are given opportunities to explore and play with a wide range of media and materials, as well as encouragement for sharing their thoughts, ideas and feelings. They experience art, music, dance, movement and role play.
						Provide opportunities for personal expression through art.	Role play activities support exploration and play.	Provides opportunities that encourage exploration with a wide range of materials.	Provides opportunities to share thoughts, ideas and feelings through imaginative story telling.	Sing-a-long resources encourage music, dance and movement.	Stories can be read physically or virtually in a range of languages.